

Latino Decisions Poll on Executive Action - November 2014

Q1. The executive order proposed by Obama would only be temporary and could expire in January 2017. If Hillary Clinton decides to run for President and says she will support the executive order and renew the legal work permits for undocumented immigrants who have U.S. citizen children, how likely would you be to support Clinton for President in 2016?

About the poll:

Latino Decisions interviewed 405 randomly selected Latino registered voters nationwide from November 20 - 22, 2014 and contains a margin of error of +/- 4.9%. Respondents were interviewed by fully bilingual interview staff and given the option to complete the poll in English or Spanish and surveys averaged 10 minutes in length. Sample was drawn from the national L2 database of registered voters and is representative of Latino voters nationally. The survey was designed by Latino Decisions co-founders Matt Barreto and Gary Segura on behalf of Presente.org, NALACC and Mi Familia Vota.
