Q1. Even though it is still a long time away, thinking ahead to the November 2020 Presidential election, what would you say the chances are that you will vote in the presidential election and other state offices – you will NOT vote in 2020, the chances are 50-50, you probably WILL vote, or you are almost certain you will vote?

Q28. For Democrats, prior to the general election in November, there will be a series of state-by-state primary contests to select the nominee to face President Trump. A lot of people skip the primaries and just vote in the November general election. Thinking ahead to the 2020 Presidential primaries and caucuses, what would you say the chances are that you will participate and vote - are you almost certain to vote, will you probably vote, are the chances 50-50, or do you not think you will vote?

Methodology

On behalf of Univision Communications Inc., Latino Decisions and North Star Opinion collaborated on a national poll of Latino eligible voters. The poll was overseen by Univision polling director Dr. Sergio Garcia-Rios. Overall 1,007 Latino citizen adults were interviewed across all fifty states from a combination of landline, cell phone, and online completion modes. All voters were randomly selected and given the opportunity to complete the interview in English or Spanish, at their discretion. Randomized stratified quota sampling was employed to ensure the appropriate balance of Latinos across state, gender, age, education, and nativity. Post-stratification weights were applied to bring the sample into alignment with the Census CPS estimates of Latino citizen adults nationwide. Overall 38% of interviews were in Spanish and 62% in English. The final survey contains an overall design error of +/- 3.1%. For registered voters the possible error is +/- 3.4% and for likely voters +/- 4.2%. The survey was in the field June 11-17, 2019.
